About Chandra

Chandra is a certified axiogenics self leadership coach who helps clients enhance their idea of what's possible toward the goal of increasing their influence and effectiveness.

Chandra has over 20 years of experience as a CPA and recently received an Unsung Hero award as a result of her leading a $4.3 million hurricane disaster relief fund. Chandra collaborated with a team of dedicated student counselors to manage the efficient distribution of aid to 800+ families.

THE POWER TO TRANSFORM

Chandra's central message is simple, yet powerful:

"There are no under-studies for your life. This is your time to step into the spotlight of your purpose and use your skills and talents to transition into doing more of what you love to do, while doing what you must more joyfully."

Chandra believes that a key source of fulfillment stems from community volunteer efforts. She served for many years as the Houston volunteer Accounting Director for The College Fund/UNCF's annual telethon where she led 80+ volunteers to tally donations during the annual "night of show" telecast.

As a former member of the Houston UNCF Advisory Board, Chandra often spoke to audiences in her role as the creator of the Young Scholars program.

Chandra is also a published author of the book, "It's Harvest Time: Reaping the Treasure God has Waiting for You." She is an associate life member of Jack and Jill of America and the Houston Chapter of CPAs.

As a Deaconess and longtime member of Wheeler Avenue, Chandra is experienced in song ministry, facilitating conferences, retreats, workshops and prayer breakfasts.

IMPRESSIONS

Chandra has an infectious personality that immediately grabs the attention of her audience, but equally important she is always prepared. In every case that I've seen her formally speak, she always has great command of the subject matter and the needs of her audience. Her natural confidence and excitement results in compelling presentations every time.

Chandra's professionalism coupled with her quick recall of relevant facts and engaging communication style makes her a perfect choice to present to any Board, team meeting, or group of community stakeholders. Everyone walks away both enlightened and motivated to take action.

~Rhonda Smith, CFO

Chandra is one of the most engaging and energetic speakers I have encountered. She has the ability to take everyday stories and relate them to biblical principles anyone can apply immediately in life. Chandra's presentation sticks with you long after you have left her presence and you believe you can live a more fulfilled life.
